

You have gone

The sun does not shine
Because you have gone
And the clouds cry with sorrow.

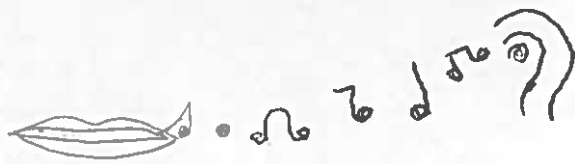

The funeral bells ring with sadness
Because you have gone
And tears trickle down my face.

The petals of flowers have withered
Because you have gone
And the world has fallen silent.

I feel so lonely
Because you have gone
And your voice is the only thing I hear.
