

When I Am Angry

Volcanoes explode

When I am angry
And lightning cracks the sky like a whip.

Sharks tear flesh off whale bones.

When I am angry

And bats smother the sky in a black cloud.

Bison charge and stampede across the empty plain.

When I am angry

And corks hiss and spit.

When I am angry

The devil spreads fury across the world.

by Tom Ikin

